

Album 38

Ancient Empires & the Victory of Christ

Album 38: Ancient Empires & the Victory of Christ

True Stories from History & the Bible

Song 1: Cain's Legacy Falls

Cain killed his brother Abel out of jealousy. God marked him for protection, but Cain left God's presence and started a line of cities, violence, and false gods (Egyptian deities like Set, Sobek, Apep). His descendants built powerful but evil systems. The song declares that all of Cain's dark legacy will finally fall before Jesus Christ, the true King, who brings the New Jerusalem.

Song 2: The Matrix of Bazi Dynasty

After Babylon weakened, the short-lived Bazi tribe from the Sealand region briefly ruled. Leaders like Eulmash, Ninurta, and Shirikti held power for only a few years each. They faced constant fights with Aramean nomads. Their unstable rule shows how quickly human dynasties rise and fall like dust.

Song 3: The Matrix of Sealand Dynasty

In the marshlands of southern Iraq, the Sealand kings (Ilum-ma-ili, Gulkishar, Ea-gamil, Simbar-Shipak, etc.) ruled twice. They lived among reeds and rivers, fighting Babylon and the Kassites. Their reigns were mysterious and short. Their story reminds us that earthly powers are temporary and fade like mist.

Song 4: The Matrix of Decoding: Ancient Codes Through Dual Testaments

Ancient kings (Hammurabi, Ur-Nammu, Lipit-Ishtar, Hittites) made strict laws of revenge and payment. God gave Moses better laws. Jesus brought the highest way — forgiveness, mercy, and love. The old laws were like slow trains; Jesus brought grace that moves faster and heals deeper.

Song 5: The Matrix of an Elamite Dynasty

From the mountains of Elam, kings like Mar-biti tried to conquer Babylon. They ruled strongly but only for six years before collapsing. Worshipping gods like Inshushinak and Humban, their power rose fast like a rocket and crashed. Human empires burn bright but quickly end.

Song 6: Matrix of Assyrian Empire

The Assyrians built a mighty empire with great kings (Ashurnasirpal, Shalmaneser, Tiglath-Pileser, Sargon, Ashurbanipal). They created huge palaces and conquered many nations. Though powerful and fearsome, their empire eventually fell. No human kingdom lasts forever.

Song 7: The Matrix of Chaldean Dynasty

The Chaldeans (Neo-Babylonians) under Nabopolassar and Nebuchadnezzar built beautiful Babylon with blue gates and hanging gardens. Later kings ruled briefly until Persia conquered them. Their grand but temporary empire teaches that only God's Kingdom is eternal.

